STATEMENT

The Reason

is plain: The members of the firm of Harper & Parrott, proprietors of The Bee Hive, only recently mutually agreed to dissolve partnership. The infusion of the capital of Mr. Parrott caused a big increase in the purchases for the firm, the stock now running far up into the thousands. Now, upon our decision to sever partnership, it becomes necessary for me to make room for the next season's goods. You know THE BEE HIVE has always lived strictly up to every advertisement, and with our supremest desire to move merchandise, we promise that you shall not be disappointed. Furthermore, we adhere to our usual policy of giving money back on any purchase if not satisfied. All we ask is that you come and see for yourself the immense stock, the low prices, and bring this advertisement and your want list. In the future The Bee Hive will be owned and personally conducted by Yours truly, J. EARLE HARPER.

My Determination to materially reduce this stock of Men's and Boys' Clothing, Ladies' and Children's Ready-to-Wear, Shoes, Dry Goods, etc., is Positive, Absolute and Unqualified.

This sale will NOT be confined solely to the Clothing and Ladies' Ready-to-wear, or to any portion of our stock, but will include and embrace every item, every garment and every article in our magnificent assortment of new mid-summer merchandise of every description.

Come and See!

Seneca's Local News.

Seneca, Aug. 17.—Special: Mr. and Mrs. Ben Harper and baby daughter; Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Harper and Miss Julia Harper are on a camping trip to the mountains. Rev. and Mrs. J. R. Moore are visiting the family of W. O. Hamilton. A. B. Lunney is in Seneca again after a vacation to Northern resorts. Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Holloway and daughter are visiting in Abbeville. M. M. Gaines is in Atlanta at a hospital, where he recently underwent an operation. Dr. and Mrs. E. C. Doyle have returned from a two weeks' visit to Canada and points North. Mrs. J. L. McWhorter and children, of Jacksonville, are visiting here. Mrs. Raymond Monroe will return to her home at Laurinburg, N. C., to-morrow. Miss Ivor Brown's friends are extending her a cordial welcome to Seneca. Miss Stella Fincannon leaves this week for Atlanta, where she will purchase fall millinery. The firm of Hopkins & Fincannon has been dissolved and Miss Fincannon will hereafter conduct the business.

Miss Jessie Lawrence was at home to her young friends last Friday evening in honor of her house guest, Miss Ruth Edwards, of Toccoa. Edward Murray, of Charlotte, visited his aunt, Mrs. Grace Verner, last week. Chas. Byrd contributed a delightful party to his young friends the past week. Miss Louise Farmer is in Seneca again after spending her vacation with homefolks at Townville. R. M. Tribble was carried to the hospital at Anderson Monday for an operation, which was performed Tuesday. At last accounts Mr. Tribble was getting along as well as could be expected. His numerous friends here and throughout the county hope for rapid improvement in his condition. He had been ill about two weeks. Following is the full corps of teachers who have been elected to teach in the Seneca High School next year: Principal, H. Conway Smith; Miss Margaret Morrison, Welford; Miss Maggie Arnold, Woodruff; Miss Ruth Berry, Richland; Miss Miriam Jennings, Campobello; Miss Kattie Sligh, Martin, Ga.; Miss Allyene Richburg, Clinton; Miss Annie Johnson, Greer;

Miss Lucile Hamilton, Seneca; Miss Edwina McCollough, Valle Crucis, N. C. School will open September 2d. I have been asked "who I was driving at last week" when I referred to the habits of some small automobiles. I meant whomever it fitted, though I did not have any especial machine or its owner in mind. I do not depreciate a small or a cheap automobile, but I do appreciate the racket with which some cars make day and night hideous, with its cut-out and every other noise-making device in its make-up. Piles Cured in 6 to 14 Days
Your druggist will refund money if PAZO OINTMENT fails to cure any case of Itching, Blind, Bleeding or Protruding Piles in 6 to 14 days. The first application gives Ease and Rest. 50c.

Mrs. Brown Entertains Hayne Circle.
On the morning of August 12th Mrs. L. M. Brown, president of the Paul Hayne Circle, entertained the members and several invited guests at an elaborate open meeting at her home in West Union. At the appointed hour the guests were given a hearty welcome by the hostess, who invited us to the punch bowl, at which Mrs. Hayne Jones gracefully presided. After friends had exchanged greetings with friends in the parlor, little Miss Dorothy Brown, dressed as a veritable little Gretchen, passed hand-painted folders and the guests were asked to find the questions on the verandas. The contest proved to be a very interesting study on flowers, as flower names, anagrams, riddles and leaves. After all were satisfied that their knowledge of flowers had proved up to par all assembled again in the parlor, where Miss Gertrude Smith read the correct answers to the questions. Several drew for first prize—a beautiful cut glass flower vase—which Mrs. Wade Hughes received. All cut for consolation, a pretty rose jar. Mrs. J. A. Steck was the willing recipient of this. Little Dorothy then appeared with a basket on her arm, which held a Dutch bulb for each contestant. At the close of this delightful meeting a delicious salad course, followed by peach cream and wafers, was served by the hostess, assisted by Miss Gertrude Smith and Miss Hubbard, of Anderson. Besides the large number of members present, the following guests added pleasure to this occasion:

CORTRIGHT METAL SLATE

This record for durability, without leaks, repairs, or other common roof troubles, has attracted many imitators. If the shingle offered you looks like "CORTRIGHT", don't let it go at that, but look for the stamp on the corrugation at the top of the shingle—"CORTRIGHT REG. U. S. PAT.
